Shared Work program

You can reduce your payroll costs without losing your employees. With the Shared Work program, you reduce the hours your employees work, and thereby the amount you pay out. Employees, in turn, receive partial unemployment benefits.

"WorkSource has been invaluable in assisting us with recruiting, screening and hiring events. The outstanding service has led to numerous hires without the costs of other recruitment services."

Elena Lightfoot, American Behavioral Health Systems, Inc.

This flexible service is available to qualified employers, from large corporations to those with only one employee. It is designed for businesses that are anticipating layoffs, but not for those that are seasonal.
